

Even One Poor Decision
Could Have Dire Consequences
for Your Organization

Have you ever...

- Hired the wrong person and "it didn't work out"?
- Had an employee complain, or even threaten legal action?
- Wondered if staff turnover is too high?
- Wished you could get the best out of your employees?

Are you doing everything you need to protect your company?

Did you know...

- Defending a sexual harassment case in court can cost $250,000? That the judgment routinely exceeds $1 million? ⁽¹⁾
- A whopping 30% of business failures are due to poor hiring practices? ⁽²⁾
- The odds of an employee winning a discrimination case are 65%? That the average award is $204,310? ⁽³⁾

HR Isn't An Optional Activity

You must: follow federal and state regulations, attract & retain quality employees, offer competitive wages and benefits, train and develop staff, file the proper forms, process payroll....

And you should: spend less time & money, motivate people to do their best....

People are what make or break a business. You cannot run a successful company without effective HR.
